

ARREST OF PATRIOTS.

John Dillon and Editor O'Brien Taken into Custody.

A GREAT SENSATION IN IRELAND.

The two men charged with conspiracy against the government—warrants issued for the arrest of other Irishmen—that alleged Irish nationalism and what Herr Vonssa says of it—other foreign items of interest.

DUBLIN, Sept. 18.—A tremendous sensation was caused in Ireland Thursday by the arrest of William O'Brien and John Dillon. It is understood that they are charged with conspiracy against the government and that other arrests of prominent representatives of the Irish National party will follow. Dillon and O'Brien were being arranged for a tour of the United States and Canada in company with Patrick Harrington and T. G. Gill, and were expected to sail for America early in October.

Other Arrests To Be Made.

The men were arrested Wednesday for their recent utterances in Ireland. Dillon was taken into custody at his residence near Dublin and immediately sent to the railroad station, where he was placed on a special train en route to Tipperary. He was accompanied by a large military escort. O'Brien was taken into custody at Glenagarriff and conveyed to Cork. Warrants of arrest were also issued against members Thomas J. Condon and David Sheehy and the Rev. David Humphreys, of Tipperary have been issued.

Great Excitement in Ireland.

This sudden action of the government has fallen like a bolt from a clear sky. The Irish nationalists had no suspicion of the impending blow and are at a loss to know what it portends. Mingle surprise and indignation are the predominant feelings in Ireland. Dispatches from various parts of Ireland indicate that the nationalists are everywhere greatly excited at the arrests. The arrests were utterly unexpected that the surprise with which they were first heard soon gave way to a feeling of suspense as to what the government would do next.

FOREIGN NOTES AND GOSSIP.

Approved the Government's Action.

MELBOURNE, Sept. 18.—A deputation from a number of county and municipal councils waited upon the minister of commerce and advised him that they approved the action of the government in the matter of the labor strikes. The delegates declared that there were plenty of farmers and others in all parts of the colony who were willing to come to Melbourne and assist in placing commerce on its normal basis. They said they deplored the course taken by the leaders of the strike. In reply the minister said that the government was prepared to frustrate the strikers' efforts to establish a reign of terror and that if necessary the colonies would combine and take vigorous measures to secure the freedom of trade. The minister's remarks were much applauded.

That Slavery Proclamation.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—A dispatch from Berlin to The Standard says: Herr von See, for several years German consul at Zanzibar, declared that it is impossible that the German East-African company issued the alleged slavery proclamation, because the martial law only allows the imperial commissioners to act. In any case he could not believe the slavery story because such action is ascribed to the company would be utterly at variance with its principles. The negotiations in regard to the African possessions of England and Germany are proceeding smoothly, Germany having admitted England's claim to Wanga and Javete.

BIG STRIKE IN PROSPECT.

About 40,000 Illinois and Indiana Miners to Quit Work.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 18.—Patrick McBryde, member of the executive board of the United Mine Workers, was in Pittsburgh Wednesday night on his way to Springfield, Ill., where he will order a strike of the 40,000 miners employed in the Indiana and Illinois fields. The strike will be for an advance in wages and will begin Nov. 1. In the northern districts an advance of 7½ cents is asked. In the southern districts the advance asked is 10 cents. The strike has been brewing for a long time. The Illinois and Indiana operators, it is charged, have been showing themselves particularly hostile toward the men. The demands were made last spring. The miners then announced they would work throughout the summer.

Plenty of Funds on Hand.

The operators have amply provided the advance, except those in the northern districts, who will concede if the southern operators will also make the concession. As the latter refuse to do so, however, a strike is certain. The miners have been preparing for the strike and plenty of funds have been secured to put the strike into it. The executive board of the United Mine Workers has sanctioned the strike and Mr. McBryde goes west as its representative.

MAN AND WIFE DEAD.

Two Deaths Caused by a Gasoline Stove at Normal, Ills.

NORMAL, Ills., Sept. 18.—A peculiar and shocking accident occurred here about 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, costing the lives of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Gee and prostrating their infant child. Mr. and Mrs. Gee lived at El Paso and were each about 25 years of age. They came to Normal, where Mr. Gee entered the university, and they rented two second-floor rooms at the residence of Mr. Young, north of the university grounds, proposing to keep house. Among their equipments was a new gasoline stove, which caused Wednesday morning's calamity. About 8 o'clock Mrs. Gee was attracted by the cry of the baby, and going upstairs found Mr. and Mrs. Gee lying prostrate on the floor of the principal living room, dead.

Cause of the Tragedy.

The child was in the adjoining room, with the communicating door open, and while considerably affected by the gas was conscious and was soon restored. From the fumes in the room there was evidence of some deadly vapor from the stove. Professor Colton was called in from the Normal university to explain the phenomenon. He said that the gas, which is called carbon monoxide, is produced by the burning of gasoline and is a deadly poison, which a single whiff would prostrate the victim. The windows of the room were closed to secure the heat, and the gas became unconscious before they were aware of what was wrong.

Sensational Scene at a Marriage Ceremony at Jersey City.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Henry Cassell, of Jersey City attempted to kill his son Wednesday night while the latter was about to be married to Miss Mary Derry in St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church in that city. The bridegroom was standing before the altar and Father Sheehan was in the act of performing the ceremony when Cassell, who had got into the church without being seen, jumped up in an excited manner and, pointing a pistol at his son, deliberately fired. The ball failed to hit the young man and lodged in the wall. As Cassell was about to fire a second time, Father Sheehan sprang toward him and managed to disarm him after a desperate struggle. There were a large number of persons present, and great excitement prevailed. The bride fainted and was taken in charge by friends. Cassell's reason for attempting to murder his son was that he wanted him to marry another woman.

A NEW INDUSTRY.

A Scheme to Use Flax Straw Which Is Now Thrown Away.

EDOU CLAIRE, Wis., Sept. 18.—It is proposed by President Putnam, of the Eau Claire Lian company, the proprietor of one of the two men mills in the United States, to use the flax straw, which is thrown away yearly. He has interested eastern capitalists in the scheme. This will be the first establishment in the United States. The time may not be far distant when the whole process, from the retting of the straw after it is taken from the field in which it grows to the last operation which brings out the finished fabric, may be done here and the flax grown by American farmers be handled and retted by American hands, put through American dressing machines and turned into the complete product by American mills in such quantity and quality as to establish a magnificent industry, now only in its infancy.

BAY STATE DEMOCRATS

They Meet at Worcester and Nominate a Ticket.

RUSSELL NAMED FOR GOVERNOR.

One Thousand, Six Hundred and Seventy-Five Delegates Attend the Convention, Which Is Called to Order by Patrick Collins—Synopsis of the Platform—Official Returns from the Election in Maine—Nominations to Congress.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 18.—Chairman P. A. Collins of the state committee called the Democratic state convention to order at 11 o'clock Thursday morning. After the reading of the call by the secretary, temporary organization was effected by the choice of Chairman Collins as president and Joseph Quincy, Jr., secretary. Committees on credentials and permanent organization were appointed. The report of the committee on permanent organization reported as president, John E. Russell, of Leitch; secretaries, Joseph Quincy, Jr., J. W. Coveney and J. B. Couch. Mr. Russell was escorted to the platform by a committee and was loudly cheered. Chairman Collins said he would not say an unnecessary word. Permanent Chairman Russell, upon receiving the report of the committee on credentials, then addressed the convention.

The Ticket Nominated.

Mr. Russell spoke an hour and was frequently interrupted by applause. At the conclusion of his speech committees were appointed upon selection of members at large of the state committee upon resolution and upon all candidates other than governor and lieutenant governor. The committee on credentials reported 1,075 delegates present, representing 343 cities and towns with no contested delegation. Donovan, of Lowell, took the platform and presented the name of William E. Russell, of Cambridge, as candidate for governor. The nomination was seconded and then made by acclamation. For lieutenant governor John Corcoran, of Clinton, was nominated by acclamation. The committee on the balance of the ticket reported as follows and the report was adopted: For secretary of state, Elbridge Cushman, of Lake Village; treasurer, William D. Trefney, of Marblehead; auditor, Edward L. Munn, of Holyoke; attorney general, Eliza B. Maynard, of Springfield.

The Convention Adjourns.

John E. Fitzgerald then took the floor in advocacy of the following, which the state committee had voted to submit to the convention:

"The Democratic state committee is requested to prepare uniform rules and regulations for the organization of party committees and the conduct of party caucuses and the same when officially promulgated shall be binding on the party organization throughout the state."

Thomas Gargan followed in earnest advocacy of the resolution, and it was adopted. It was voted that certificates of nomination be filed, required by the ballot law, and that the committee be authorized to fill any vacancies on the state ticket. Mr. Russell was called for, but it was stated that he was in ill health, and the convention at 1:45 p. m. adjourned.

The Platform.

The platform reaffirms the demands for state and national legislation contained in the platform of last year; the demand for free raw materials, particularly wool, coal and iron ore; for lower duties on the necessities of life and for wider markets for American products; and emphasizes the importance of the wool trade with Canada as a means of promoting the commercial and industrial welfare of the commonwealth; sanctions the recent attempt of the secretary of state to secure the amendment of the McKinley bill by incorporating into some provision looking toward that American policy based upon more intimate commercial relations with the sixteen sister republics of North, Central and South America which the Democratic party demanded in 1888. Recognizes the failure of this attempt and denounces the so-called reciprocity amendment adopted by the senate as a characteristic piece of Republican deceit; repeats the declarations of last year that while condemning fraud in elections wherever practiced we are opposed to the scheme of a national election law; recalls with pride the financial policy of the federal government when the treasury was under control of the Democratic party, when confidence was felt in the prudence and sagacity of its methods.

Anti-Lottery Men Celebrate.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 18.—At New Orleans, Baton Rouge and other places salutes were fired by the Anti Lottery league of Louisiana in honor of the passage by congress of the anti-lottery bill. A new anti-lottery Republican newspaper, The Republican, has been established in New Orleans.

There has been no change in the list of senators as published. The next house will stand 110 Republicans to 41 Democrats.

The trouble is due to complications arising from the Potter Lovell failure and that of Seaver, Foster & Bowman. Mr. Satter says he is perfectly solvent and does not expect bankruptcy. The firm of Seaver, Foster & Bowman held $15,000 of our paper which they agreed to take up at maturity and having failed could not meet their obligations. It is said the Satter company's paper came into the possession of the Potter-Lovell company by whom it was purchased.

BLOODSHED IN THE HOUSE.

Kilgore Breaks a Door Latch and Also Dingley's Nose.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 18.—A quorum was not counted until half an hour after the house met Thursday. When the quorum was reached, the vote on its approval was—yeas 124, nays 0. The quorum having disappeared, a call of the house was ordered. The call showed the presence of 173 members, and the speaker directed the clerk to call the roll on the approval of the fourth article of Georgia insisted that during a call of the house only two motions were in order—one to dispose with further proceedings under the call and to adjourn. Hargrove of Wisconsin then moved to dispense with further proceedings under the call. During the call of the roll the one door which has always been kept open to allow ingress and egress was latched and two doorknobs were stationed at it to prevent members leaving the chamber.

Broke the Door Latch.

The first gentleman to resent this enforced imprisonment was Kilgore, of Texas, who forced his way into the lobby. Dingley, of Missouri, was directly in front of the door when Kilgore broke the latch. Dingley received the full force of the concussion in the face and his nose was badly bruised. It is thought it is broken. Kilgore was soon followed by Crain of Texas, Cummings of New York, and Coleman of Louisiana, approached the door together and upon being informed that there was no thoroughfare manifested such a disposition to break the door from its hinges that one of the doorknobs prudently removed the latch and permitted them to pass out. After this the door was left unlatched. Further proceedings under the call were dispensed with—yeas 133, nays 38. The journal was then approved and the house adjourned.

DIDN'T GET "BUCK FEVER."

Ex-President Cleveland Kills a Deer in the Adirondacks.

SARANAC INN, N. Y., Sept. 18.—Ex-President Cleveland decided to make a short expedition into the Adirondacks in search of deer before returning to the city, so Wednesday, the weather being favorable, he started out in company with his guide and dogs. For some time he hunted for him from the start, for fresh deer sport was found after going but a short distance from this place, but several miles were traversed before they found sufficient traces to warrant him in calling a hunt.

Mr. Cleveland's Coolness.

They found the best logs and sawing themselves in some underbrush a few rods apart quietly awaited the appearance of their game. About an hour's patient waiting and watching then a fine buck, accompanied by one fawn, was seen making toward the clearing. Mr. Cleveland waited with marvelous coolness until they were within range, when, bringing his rifle quickly to his shoulder, he fired. The buck made one wild spring into the air and fell back dead.

THEY DIED FOR LOVE.

An Artist and an Actress Kill Themselves Simultaneously.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Gustave C. Koch, 36 years old, crayon artist, born in Vienna, and Emilie Rossi, aged 19, actress, with Amberg's troupe, born in Berlin, committed suicide early Thursday morning. Koch, after pacing up and down the up-town station of the elevated railroad at the Boverly and Canal street several times at 6 o'clock Thursday morning, stopped at the south end, when a woman put her head out of the third-story window and called to him. He said to her: "Yes, I have come. Emilie. Are you ready?" The next moment at the signal: "Ready," he shot himself, falling dead under the window, and the woman committed the same act in her room. Emilie left without a word to her aunt, Mary Knorr, with whom she boarded, in which she spoke about her lover, Koch, a quarrel with her mother, a determination of Koch and herself to commit suicide, and asking that her body be cremated.

ACKNOWLEDGE THEIR DEFEAT.

The Strike on the New York Central Declared Off by Powderly.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—The New York Central strike is over. It has been ordered off by General Master Workman Powderly. This was the word that was passed among the men about the Grand Central depot late Wednesday night. The men fairly and frankly acknowledged their defeat, and they got back as non-combatants. This statement was made Wednesday night by Dennis McCarthy, one of the leaders of the strike. McCarthy was the first one of the sixty knights suspended by the company whose suspension precipitated the strike. "The strike," said McCarthy, "was declared off by district assembly No. 248, in Albany, acting under instructions of Mr. Powderly. It means that the New York Central has won the fight and the men are beaten. They go back to work as usual, and the Knights of Labor and the Knights of Labor can take care of themselves."

The reciprocity feature was the one subject discussed, and it was finally adopted by a party vote.

ROASTED MR. POWERS.

The Illinois State Board of Equalization

HAS AN INTERESTING MEETING.

One of the Members Attacks the Board in a Speech at Chicago and Is Compelled to Make an Apology—He Is Severely Reproached by the Other Members and Called All Kinds of Names—The Apology.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills., Sept. 18.—The state board of equalization held a session Wednesday that was very interesting, especially to Mr. Powers, of the Second congressional district, of Chicago. In Mr. Powers' speech in Farwell hall, Chicago, last Monday night before the Taxpayers' association, he attacked his fellow members of the board in a most reckless manner, charging substantially that the railroads and other corporations controlled the action of the members. When his speech appeared in the Chicago papers Tuesday morning there was much indignation among the members. They were very angry and proceeded to draft a resolution denouncing Mr. Powers very severely, declaring him to be an unfit person to occupy a position on the board.

Denounced Mr. Powers.

Powers headed off its introduction Wednesday morning by making a most humble apology for his outrageous attack on the board. He could not account for the impulse that prompted him to such a speech; he could not recollect what he said, but ought to have made his charges, he said, here in the board, and begged humane treatment from the members. Mr. Collier, of Port Jervis, moved that the clerk read copies of Chicago papers containing Powers' statements, which were read by Mr. Neff. Judge Scott was willing to drop the matter if Powers would sign a written apology; otherwise he would introduce a resolution to expel him. "I do not propose to allow a member of this board to make such statements with out denouncing him as a willful and malicious liar and a scoundrel."

A Terrible Roasting.

Mr. Glenn, of Coles, wanted to call the attention of the board and the people of Cook county to the fact that Mr. Powers' pleas guilty to the charge that he does not know what he is talking about; that he is not responsible; he had so considered Powers ever since he was elected. Mr. Powers was given twenty minutes to write an apology, which was agreed to, and Mr. Powers wrote the following:

"With reference to my speech delivered in Farwell hall last Monday evening, I hereby declare I had no intention to impugn the character or a member of this board or its committees."

"ANDREW T. POWERS."

This was accepted, and for the present the matter was dropped.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 18.—The Times Democrat of St. Louis special says a bad wreck occurred on the Warrenton branch of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern railroad five miles west of Colden's, about 10 a. m. Wednesday. It occurred to the east-bound train, consisting of several freight cars, a baggage and mail car, and one mail coach, about forty-five passengers being aboard. The engine in passing over a weak rail broke it. The freight cars passed over without displacement, but the baggage car and passenger coach jumped the track, rolled down the embankment, and were badly wrecked.

Will the people on South Water street please inform their readers which party is responsible for the defeat of free coinage of silver in the present Congress? We have had an editorial from that part of the town to the effect that the republican party has made a good home market for silver. We could see some sense in such an editorial were it addressed to people who live in Colorado or any of the silver producing states. But any silver that we get hold of in Illinois is got by way of the plow and the reaping machine. We are not such fools as to throw our hats in the air because the product of the silver mine has gone up in price; at least it is to be hoped we are not such fools. There are a few people here who want more silver, and while such is the case it would be just as reasonable to expect us to shout at an advance in the price of coal as to have us grow merry because the white metal has gone up.

It should be remembered that we are not selling silver. That is one of the things we must buy, and the geological indications are that we will always be in the same fix, unless we take the cars and move West. What is the Rep trying to do, work up an editorial boom for some Western state? We are told that silver has taken a great jump in the last few weeks. We are expected to be merry on this account. This could be only after we had concluded to pull up stakes in the old cornfield and take some witch's switch and go out in search of a silver mine.

But the people here think they are interested in a big supply of silver dollars. They will not go wild over the very indefinite statement that "silver to-day is worth 1.20." But they would like to know that enough of that silver may get into the shape of dollars to break down a large part of the usurer's industry. Some of these people have said in convention that they wanted free coinage. That is their way of looking at the silver question.

Now, what party has just beat this free coinage? The record is made up, and it is a recent one. Will the Rep tell the story to its readers, or will it proceed on the assumption that they are as ignorant as these at whom the republican platform of Kansas was fired?

CAMERON WITHDRAWALS.
Ex-Governor Cameron, of Virginia, is out in a letter in which he gives his reasons for withdrawing from the republican party, both state and national. Cameron was elected governor of Virginia over Senator John W. Daniel in the campaign of 1880. He is generally regarded as one of the most brilliant men of Virginia. But he has grown tired of the republican party, and here are the reasons he gives in a private letter:

"The republican party preserves no longer the semblance of speaking for the entire country, but bases its claim to supremacy on sectional prejudices and sectional interest, pure and simple. Not only is this so, but the directors of its policy have not hesitated in the attainment of their ends to prostitute the pledged faith of the party in sight of all the world, and to renounce in their Congressional enactments the promises solemnly made in the Chicago platform. They stand self-convicted, not only of false pretense and public faith, but of mathematical malignancy in seeking to retain power by renegeing the war sentiment at the North and west and by resurrecting all the stock phrases of fanaticism and sectional animosity which could stir the South into resentment and riot."
"Their object was and is to force the fighting as between a solid North and a solid South, and at the same time to use the small contingent of Southern republicans in Congress to minimize the power of the South by political abominations as the Lodge bill, and by so framing a tariff law (under pretext of protection to American labor and American products) as to increase every burden of the customer upon the weaker section, and as to leave in force, in all its shameful inequality, the revenue tax upon tobacco."

"President Harrison has done nothing south of Mason and Dixon's line since his inauguration except to recognize with reluctance that any such country existed. His appointments, with just few enough honorable variations to prove the rule, have been of men not representative in character, in fitness, or capacity. He has shown utter inaptitude to square his actions with his utterances, his performances with his promises, his principles with his prejudices, or his status with his stature. He has been the instrument, willing or unwilling, of the machine elements of his party, and for the want of bold and brave catholic action he has made himself responsible for the fact that in the North and West there is a divided republican party and that in the South there is none worthy of the name."

Doc MAFYIT has at last announced himself in printer's ink for the shriveling. There are now in the Rep four aspirants for this office in a bunch. We think the paper should have sufficient regard for the real situation to put one of these announcements on each of its four pages. If you keep them within reaching distance of each other you should at least see and ink.

SENATOR INGALLS has put the Pennsylvania campaign on the lowest level politics as ever reached. After all there must be some mistake about Ingalls' great ability. In his Pennsylvania work he is no more than a vulgar scold. Very big men don't do this in our day. Ingalls thinks he occupies the intellectual place in the Senate formerly held by Conkling. Just imagine Roscoe Conkling getting down to billingsgate. But you can't do it.

Will Representative Kennedy's speech attacking Senator Quay be omitted from the Record? That seems to be the plan now. We are bound to have "dignified silence," even if we have to take a constructive article.

These various officials connected with the World's Fair in Chicago, have had reported to them what each is to do. Action so far has been limited to the redemption of a site that was once discarded.

THE REP had an editorial intimation a few days ago that reciprocity will not kill it. That concern could safely take stychnine if some one would hang a republican label on the box.

THE KISS has gone forth that the very slim girl is fashionable. Young men with best girls will now get by heart all authorities that go to show oyster suppers produce flesh.

It is to be hoped the committee that is investigating Raun will not have check enough to call for any salary.

DR. J. H. COULTER, OF PEORIA, ILL.,

a well known Specialist in Diseases of the Nose, Throat and Chest, in a paper on "Medication in Chest Diseases," says: "One of the most potent factors in producing the bad results so often seen following ordinary coughs and colds, is the use of the hundreds of 'syrups,' 'mixtures,' etc., which are foisted and forced upon an indulgent and confiding public. These almost without exception, contain some form of opium, or some other equally poisonous drug, which by their action, checks the elimination of the offending secretions thus obviating the very object to be attained in all such conditions."

Prof. H. F. Bitner, a noted chemist, of Millersville, Pa., says in a paper: "It is probable that many deaths occur, especially among infants, by the use of such opiates as 'syrups,' 'nurses drops,' 'cordials,' 'preservatives,' and the like."

This is one of the great merits of Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure. It contains no opiates or poison but is innocuous. It can be given in any dose without the slightest danger, although it is better to take a small dose and repeat it often. It acts at once, and will stop the worst cough. It is thus invaluable in cases of croup. After the paroxysm is checked and the little sufferer has gone to sleep, the mother need not be alarmed for fear that the after effects will be fatal. There is nothing in Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure to give any one alarm, and the child will wake in the morning not only relieved for the time being, but better able to resist the attack of croup the next time. In this particular, Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure is unrivalled in excellence, in safety and in certainty.
